May 7, 2001 LB 620

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Yes.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: That's the best way I can explain it.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay, I think it's clear to me now where the distinction is. But I hope you see what this bill has caused me in the way of reading it word by word and line by line, and then Senator Kristensen can explain it so easily.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Yeah.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: But then he's for the bill and we expect him to be familiar with it. When we get to some of these amendments, as I said in the beginning, that are not controversial, I'm going to use the opportunity to delve into other aspects of the bill.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Senator Chambers, there are no further lights and that was your third time, I'm sorry. But you are recognized to close, if you wish to.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you, Senator Cudaback. You're not nearly as sorry as I am because I'm enjoying what is happening this afternoon. I mean I'm not the only one on the rack. Senator Beutler is standing next to the rack waiting to take his And although right now Senator Kristensen is turning the crank, he'll have his opportunity to rest upon the rack before we're through. I want to call attention to parts of the bill that I have questions about, but I want to do it at the beginning of one of my opportunities to speak so that I won't get into the middle of it, then run out of time. But an aspect that I'm going to continue to come back to is the fact that we don't have to do this to get Union Pacific here so we ought to just strike that super tier. Had Union Pacific not gotten into the picture, we might not be confronting what we are here today. I think in the time I have remaining I want to ask Senator Kristensen a question, if I can get it all out. And, Senator Kristensen, it will be on page 17. Now if a person invests $50 million, there would also have to be the creation of 500 new employees. That would be in line 13 on page 17.
